OBJECTION TO RENEWAL OF LICENSE
SHOW CAUSE HEARING ORDER

Amigos, Inc. (A Kentucky Corporation) (licensee) holds 2011 Class C and SDM licenses with Sunday Sales Permit (P.M.) at the above-noted location. The licensee has applied for renewal of these licenses.

The City of Muskegon has filed an objection to the 2012-2013 renewal of the Class C license with the Commission under MCL 436.1501(2), and has submitted the following documents:

- A copy of the Resolution adopted by the City of Muskegon on March 13, 2012 objecting to the 2012 renewal of the subject license.
- Copies of two (2) affidavits of mailing dated March 6, 2012 and March 16, 2012 notifying the licensee that the City Commission will meet to hear objections to adoption of a resolution to recommend the license not be renewed by the MLCC.

- Proof of local publishing of the notice of the City of Muskegon Public Hearing scheduled March 13, 2012.

Licenses issued by the Commission expire April 30th of each year as established by MCL 436.1501(2). Further, licenses for consumption of alcoholic liquor on the premises require approval by the local legislative body in which the applicant's place of business is located (except in a city with a population of 600,000 or more) before issuance of a license, and also before renewal of an existing license if an objection to renewal has been filed with the Commission by the local legislative body at least 30 days before April 30th.

The Commission noticed a Show Cause Hearing under administrative rule R 436.1925(1) as to whether the Class C license should be renewed based on the objection received by the local legislative body under MCL 436.1501(2). A written communication was made to the Commission on April 26, 2012 indicating the outstanding property tax owed to the City of Muskegon was paid on April 25, 2012.

The Show Cause Hearing was held on April 30, 2012, at the Commission's Lansing office, and there was no one present at the hearing on behalf of the licensee or the City of Muskegon.

The Commission finds that the City of Muskegon has filed with the Commission an objection to the application for the 2012-2013 renewal year. The Commission finds that the population of Muskegon is less than 600,000. The Commission finds that MCL 436.1501(2) requires the approval of the local legislative body for renewal of the Class C license since an objection to renewal was filed at least 30 days before April 30, 2012. The Commission finds that written communication was submitted to the Commission on April 26, 2012 indicating the licensee is now in compliance with the City Code of Ordinances, and that a Resolution approving the application for renewal of the license will be submitted to the Commission after the City's first regularly scheduled meeting in May.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that:

- A. The license is RENEWED for the 2012-2013 licensing year.
- B. The licensee shall file with the Commission a copy of the Resolution approving renewal, or reversing the objection to renewal, of the license by May 31, 2012.

Bar Works, Inc. (licensee) holds 2011 Class C and SDM licenses with Sunday Sales Permit (P.M.), Dance-Entertainment Permit, Outdoor Service Permit, Direct Connection Permit, Specific Purpose Permit (Food) and Two (2) Bars at the above-noted location. The licensee has applied for renewal of these licenses.

The City of Port Huron has filed an objection to the 2012-2013 renewal of the Class C license with the Commission under MCL 436.1501(2), and has submitted the following documents:

- A certified copy of the Resolution adopted by the Port Huron City Council at a regular meeting held on February 27, 2012 objecting to the 2012 renewal of the subject licenses.
- A certified copy the Resolution adopted by the Port Huron City Council at a regular meeting held on January 9, 2012 scheduling a public hearing and directing the City Clerk to notify licensees of a hearing date and to publish the notice in the local newspaper.

- A copy of a letter mailed certified mail to the licensee on January 10, 2012 notifying the licensee of the public hearing scheduled on February 13, 2012 to review whether the licensed establishment is in violations of the guidelines established to guide the Council in making a recommendation to the MLCC on license renewals.
- A copy of a letter mailed certified mail to the licensee on February 14, 2012 notifying the licensee of the public hearing scheduled on February 27, 2012 to consider objecting to the renewal of the license licenses.
- Proof of local publishing of the notice of the City of Port Huron Public Hearing scheduled February 13, 2012.

Licenses issued by the Commission expire April 30th of each year as established by MCL 436.1501(2). Further, licenses for consumption of alcoholic liquor on the premises require approval by the local legislative body in which the applicant's place of business is located (except in a city with a population of 600,000 or more) before issuance of a license, and also before renewal of an existing license if an objection to renewal has been filed with the Commission by the local legislative body at least 30 days before April 30th.

The Commission noticed a Show Cause Hearing under administrative rule R 436.1925(1) as to whether the Class C license should be renewed based on the objection received by the local legislative body under MCL 436.1501(2). A written communication was made to the Commission on April 25, 2012 indicating the outstanding debt owed to the City of Port Huron was paid on April 25, 2012.

The Show Cause Hearing was held on April 30, 2012, at the Commission's Lansing office, and there was no one present at the hearing on behalf of the licensee or the City of Port Huron.

The Commission finds that the City of Port Huron has filed with the Commission an objection to the application for the 2012-2013 renewal year. The Commission finds that the population of Port Huron is less than 600,000. The Commission finds that MCL 436.1501(2) requires the approval of the local legislative body for renewal of the Class C license since an objection to renewal was filed at least 30 days before April 30, 2012. The Commission finds that written communication was submitted to the Commission on April 25, 2012 indicating the licensee is now in compliance with the City Code of Ordinances, and that a Resolution approving the application for renewal of the license will be submitted to the Commission after the City's first regularly scheduled meeting in May.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that:

- A. The license is RENEWED for the 2012-2013 licensing year.
- B. The licensee shall file with the Commission a copy of the Resolution approving renewal, or reversing the objection to renewal, of the license by May 31, 2012.

The Commission noticed a Show Cause Hearing under administrative rule R 436.1925(1) as to whether the Class C license should be renewed based on the objection received by the local legislative body under MCL 436.1501(2). Sole member Alison Johnson represented the licensee at the April 30, 2012 hearing, held at the Commission's Lansing office, and there was no one present at the hearing representing the City of Muskegon.

The Commission finds that the City of Muskegon has filed with the Commission an objection to the application for the 2012-2013 renewal year. The Commission finds that the population of Muskegon is less than 600,000. The Commission finds that MCL 436.1501(2) requires the approval of the local legislative body for renewal of the Class C license since an objection to renewal was filed at least 30 days before April 30, 2012. The Commission finds that without approval of the local legislative body, the Class C license for 2012 shall not be renewed until the local legislative body approves the application for renewal.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that:

- A. The Class C and SDM licenses shall be placed in escrow, subject to the escrow requirements of administrative rule R 436.1107, including the payment of all fees by April 30th of each year.
- B. The Class C and SDM licenses shall remain in escrow, subject to the escrow requirements of administrative rule R 436.1107, until approval is received from the City of Muskegon and filed with the Commission, or until a transfer is approved by the MLCC within the escrow time period authorized.

OBJECTION TO RENEWAL OF LICENSE
SHOW CAUSE HEARING ORDER

V.R. Entertainment Network, Inc. (licensee) holds a 2011 Class C license with Sunday Sales Permit (P.M.) and Dance-Entertainment Permit at the above-noted location. The licensee has applied for renewal of this license.

The City of Ann Arbor has filed an objection to the 2012-2013 renewal of this license with the Commission under MCL 436.1501(2), and has submitted the following documents:

- The standards established by the City of Ann Arbor setting forth what constitutes a basis for objecting to renewal of a liquor license; specifically Section 7:97 of Chapter 109 of the Ann Arbor City Code.
- City Liquor Administrative Hearing Rules adopted by the City.
- A certified copy of the notice sent to the licensee by the City.
- A copy of the Proof of Service of the notice and Violation Report issued by the MLCC.
- A certified copy of Ann Arbor City Council Resolution R-12-100 approved March 19, 2012, objecting to the renewal of the subject license.

- A copy of the Statement of Findings and Recommendations of the City Hearing Officer based on the hearing record; and Exhibits presented by the City which substantiated the hearing record on which the Findings were made by the local legislative body.

Licenses issued by the Commission expire April 30th of each year as established by MCL 436.1501(2). Further, licenses for consumption of alcoholic liquor on the premises require approval by the local legislative body in which the applicant's place of business is located (except in a city with a population of 600,000 or more) before issuance of a license, and also before renewal of an existing license if an objection to renewal has been filed with the Commission by the local legislative body at least 30 days before April 30th.

The Commission noticed a Show Cause Hearing under administrative rule R 436.1925(1) as to whether the license should be renewed based on the objection received by the local legislative body under MCL 436.1501(2). Attorney Roger Farinha represented the licensee at the April 30, 2012 hearing, held at the Commission's Lansing office, and Attorney Robert West represented the City of Ann Arbor.

The Commission finds that the City of Ann Arbor has filed with the Commission an objection to the application for the 2012-2013 renewal year. The Commission finds that the population of Ann Arbor is less than 600,000. The Commission finds that MCL 436.1501(2) requires the approval of the local legislative body for renewal of the license since an objection to renewal was filed at least 30 days before April 30, 2012. The Commission finds that without approval of the local legislative body, the license for 2012 shall not be renewed until the local legislative body approves the application for renewal.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that:

- A. The Class C license shall be placed in escrow, subject to the escrow requirements of administrative rule R 436.1107, including the payment of all fees by April 30th of each year.
- B. The Class C license shall remain in escrow, subject to the escrow requirements of administrative rule R 436.1107, until approval is received
